This week we received a thank offering from the Leigh family - with these words on it:

"To God's Great Glory, for the gift of Sport - to be pushed to see the extent of our courage and ability, and to learn to test these, to realize God's given more to us than we know."

Entering the Quiet Ahead of the Service

It's great to be together in worship on Sundays. As you meet and visit with friends ahead of the service, please remember those who wish to pray or reflect in preparation. Take a few minutes ahead of the service to be still before God and feel that presence.

This morning Fr. Bob will be preaching, in preparation for the fall book study, "Life Together" by Dietrich Bonhoeffer. 15 people will be joining this study, some from other parishes, and we are glad to be having this time of learning. If anyone else wishes to join please let Rev. Anne know as soon as possible so she can order another set of books.
