AWAKE CONFERENCE: Do you know someone in grade 11 or 12?

Are they seeking to deepen their faith, form lasting friendships and be transformed? Awake is seeking students to join us for an incredible week during March Break! We are inviting youth leaders, pastors and parents to encourage their youth to attend.

Through conversation, community, worship, formal teaching and experiential learning, students will deepen their faith and build a solid Christian foundation for whatever they will do. In addition to Wycliffe College's top-rated faculty, students will also be mentored by some of the most dynamic theological grad students at Wycliffe.

Awake is especially designed to give teenagers a safe and welcoming space to wrestle with big theological and philosophical questions, to interact with students and faculty whose lives are centered around these pursuits, and to build community with other youth seeking to understand how the Christian faith relates to life in 21st century Canada.
