The flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Joan Cox, dear mother of Jane; by Jane and family. May Joan's soul rest in peace and rise again in glory.

Welcome to our worship - it's good to have you here with us. If you are visiting or here for the first time.....

The Anglican Church teaches that all that are baptised in any Christian tradition are welcome to receive the sacrament at the time of communion. It is God's invitation to the table, if you feel so moved you are invited and welcomed.

If you do not wish to receive communion but would like a blessing, please come forward and cross your hands over your chest.

If you do not wish to drink wine from the chalice, please feel comfortable to receive the bread alone. Simply cross your arms over your chest so the Eucharistic assistant knows.

.Metrical - Psalter 1912 (public domain)

O Lord, you are my light and my salvation near:
then who will cause me fright or fill my heart with fear?

While God my strength, my life sustains,
secure from fear my soul remains, secure from fear
my soul remains.

My one request has been and still this prayer I
raise;
that I may live within God's house for all my days.
God's glorious beauty to admire,
and in his temple to inquire, and in his temple to inquire.

When troubles round me swell, when fears and dangers throng,
securely I will dwell in his pavilion strong.
Within the shelter of God's tent
he hides me till the storm is spent, he hides me till
the storm is spent.

Uplifted on a rock above my foes around,
amid the battle shock my song shall still resound.
Then joyful offerings I will bring;
the Lord's great praise my heart shall sing,
the Lord God's praise my heart shall sing.
