Happy Mother's Day

Happy Mother's Day to all those who are celebrating today either as a biological mother or as a mother of the heart who cares for other peoples' children. In honour of those who care for others there is the gift of a carnation.

A mother is a person who seeing there are only four pieces of pie for five people, promptly announces she never did care for pie.

Thought for the Week

"It is God's amazing grace that holds us up and brings us through the grief experience. It is God's gracious love that supports us when we have nowhere else to turn. It is God's incredible grace that sustains us when we are at the end of our rope and have lost all hope."

- James W. Moore, in "When Grief Breaks Your Heart," Abingdon, 1995

(Refugee group) finances are kept in a separate bank account to the church funds. If you are making a donation to ARK please write a dedicated cheque to "Church of the Ascension refugee fund". We cannot separate funds on one cheque.

Win with Kidney Clothes

As you may know the kidney clothes were kind enough to come and pick up all our yard sale items except for the furniture. They pay a small amount by weight and for those donations we will receive a small cheque. She explained for a large garbage bag would be approximately $12.

They are also running a contest in which we entered and Jennifer Ames took a picture with our donations and posted it on the kidney clothes fb page. For every like or share our name goes into a ballot to win $750.00 for the church.

Please go to the kidney clothes facebook page and like and/or share the post and increase our chances of winning $750.00.

Elevate 2016

Once again the Church of the Ascension will be participating in ELEVATE which is held on the last weekend in May. The goal is for churches to work together on projects within their communities and neighbourhoods to show the love of God. It is love through action.

The Ascension and other New Sudbury churches will be visiting Barrydowne College on May 25th at lunchtime to meet and be with the students.

Paul Murdock is part of an ELEVATE group in Wanup and invites others to join him in working on the project the Wanup Chapel is involved with. Please see Paul's note below.

A group in Wanup from the Chapel would like to help some vulnerable seniors. We have chosen to help Libby, and Connie, residents of Wanup.

Libby lives alone on a 5 acre farm. She is 72, and has some trouble walking. Libby would like to have three flower beds dug up, and the perennials removed. The plants are free to anyone. Bring a shovel, and pots for the plants. There 3- 4 dozen plants, and they include daylilies, delphinium, coral bells, flox, ladies mantle, to name a few. The work will go ahead on May 21 at 9 am .Phone to let me know, and I will give the address.

Connie lives alone on a 30 acre property. She is in her sixties, and has had two strokes. She is partially paralyzed on her left side. Connie would like to have her window washed, clean the yard for a dump run, and spread some gravel on the mud in front of her door. The work is planned for May 28 at 9 am. Phone let me know and I will give the address.

There is a supper meal planned at the Wanup Chapel for volunteers, on May 28.

ACW Annual Meeting

Every year the women of the Diocese gather in a different deanery for a three day conference. It's a great way for them to connect with each other and make new friends. There are guest speakers, worship, time for fellowship and a banquet. This year's "Annual" as it is called is being held in Sudbury from May 31st in the evening until June 2nd at lunchtime. If you are interested in attending the Annual this year please speak to ACW President Cathy Dionne or one of the women who have attended in the past. Every year there is a 'thank offering' taken up and this year the monies will be given to the Diocese of Tarime for a women's sewing project. Right now the women are collecting change and dollars to give to this thank offering. There is a jar outside Rev. Anne's office for your gifts of money.

Grocery Cards

You are all amazing when it comes to bringing in non perishable food items for those in need. Over the course of a month several car loads of food is carried to the cupboard upstairs and distributed. Sometimes it is to individuals and sometimes to Barrydowne College students or the Mission. Rev. Anne has also been giving out grocery gift cards to individuals and students in need. These cards are used for perishable food items such as bread, milk, cheese, fruit and veges. If you are able to help with the grocery cards, it would be very much appreciated. Any denomination, any grocery store will do. Thank you for considering this very important ministry of the parish.

SALAM NEIGHBOR is a powerful, inspirational film. Hopefully, moved by the stories of a displaced family and individuals living in Jordan's Za'atari refugee camp, we will be encouraged to be better global citizens and to actively work to support Syrian refugees in restarting/rebuilding their lives.

An evening with artist Leland Bell May 12th 2016 at 6:30pm at The Church of the Ascension

Who is Leland Bell?

Leland Bell is Anishinabe from the Wikwemikong Unceded First Nation on Manitoulin Island. Leland was one of the young men mentored by members of the Indian Group of Seven at the Manitou Arts Foundation, a summer school that operated on Schreiber Island in 1972. He was deeply inspired by the work of the Woodland artists and with the help of elders has made the connection between the Anishnabe concept of vision quest and his own commitment to living life as a good being.

Leland Bell's paintings are of stylized human figures sharing the affinity of family or friends, often depicting imagery of nurturing, sharing, learning, peace and serenity.

"My art comes from the Three Fires (or Midewiwin) tradition. That is what I believe in. I came to this belief through a dream I had about peace. It was a deeply spiritual experience. After consulting with Elders I began trying to build my sense of spirituality. Then I needed to have an Indian name. I consulted with some elders and asked them to help me find my name. I was given the name Bebaminomat which, loosely translated, means, 'when you go around you talk about good things'. Then I fasted to prepare my body and my mind to talk to the Creator. This is where my art comes from.

"The circle is central to our tradition. The Creator sits in the East. Yellow is the colour for that direction; the sacred herb is tobacco; the animal is the eagle. Red is the colour of the South which is the place of all young life, of the little animals; the sacred plant is cedar. The West is the place of life; it's colour is black and the sacred medicine is sage. All the healing powers come from the North; its colour is white; sweetgrass comes from there; and that is where the sacred bear sits. "The Circle is what my paintings are based on. The rounded lines are deliberate ... what I create is something simple and serene and peaceful."

All the paradigms that sustain his creativity exist within his Anishinabe culture. He says that he absorbs what he needs and discards what he doesn't need from other cultures and is committed to remain Anishinabe.

In the same manner that the first wave of Woodlands artists contributed to his life, Leland Bell has also been an art instructor and has conducted numerous workshops and presentations across the continent.

Funny Wise Thoughts

- No one ever says "It's only a game." when their team is winning.
- Be careful reading the fine print. There's no way you're going to like it.
- Do you realize that in about 40 years, we'll have thousands of old ladies running around with tattoos? (And rap music will be the Golden Oldies!)
- Money can't buy happiness -- but somehow it's more comfortable to cry in a Corvette than in a Yugo.
- Business conventions are important because they demonstrate how many people a company can operate without.
- Scratch a cat and you will have a permanent job.
